About the Alawites Association of the United States

The Alawites Association of the United States is dedicated to preserving and promoting Alawite heritage, fostering community development, and advocating for the well-being of Alawite communities in the U.S. and abroad. Through cultural programs, advocacy initiatives, and community engagement, we strive to build a strong, supportive network.

Position Overview

The Development Consultant will lead fundraising and partnership efforts to advance the mission of the Alawites Association. This role involves designing and implementing fundraising strategies, securing grants, cultivating donor relationships, and expanding the organization's financial resources to support its programs.

Key Responsibilities

- Develop and execute a comprehensive fundraising strategy, including major gifts, grants, corporate partnerships, and community fundraising.
- Identify and cultivate relationships with individual donors, philanthropic foundations, and institutional funders.
- Research and write grant proposals to secure funding for programs and initiatives.
- Create donor engagement strategies, including events, campaigns, and stewardship plans.
- Provide strategic guidance on revenue diversification and sustainable funding models.
- Collaborate with leadership to align fundraising efforts with organizational goals.
- Track fundraising progress and provide regular reports on donor engagement and revenue growth.

Qualifications & Experience

- Proven experience in nonprofit fundraising, grant writing, and donor relations.
- Strong network within philanthropic and donor communities.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Ability to develop compelling fundraising proposals and reports.
- Experience working with diverse communities and cultural organizations is a plus.
- Self-motivated, goal-oriented, and capable of working independently.

Application Process

Interested candidates should submit a resume, compensation requirements, cover letter, and relevant work samples (e.g., grant proposals or fundraising plans) to info@AlawitesAssociation.org with Development Consultant in the subject line.
